THE ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.

The resolution to adjourn on the 14th of August, was yesterday finally agreed to by the House; and it will probably be assented to by the Senate. A proposition to assemble daily hereafter at 11 A. M., failed. Mr. Hillyer purposes introducing a bill fixing upon the first Monday in November as the day of assembling hereafter.

CONGRESS.

THIRTY-THIRD CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION

Senate, Tuesday, June 13, 1854.

Mr. Weller presented the joint resolution of the Legislature of California, sustaining the principle of the Nebraska bill.

Mr. Gwin presented resolutions of the same Legislature, in favor of cheap ocean postage. Messrs. Badger, Gillette, Mason, and others, presented numerous memorials in favor of a reduction of ocean postage.

Mr. Fish presented the remonstrance of the Chamber of Commerce of New York, against any change in the existing law regulating the assay offices.

Mr. Houston offered a resolution, that hereafter the Senate meet daily at 11 o'clock. Ob-after the Senate meet daily at 11 o'clock. Objected to, and laid over.

Mr. Gwin offered a resolution, that, from and after Monday next, the Senate shall meet daily at 11 o'clock. Objected to, and laid Mr. Douglas introduced a bill providing for the annual meeting of Congress, on the first Monday in October, instead of December, as at present.

Mr. Badger's resolutions, providing for the printing of 40,000 additional copies of the ag-ricultural portion of the Patent Office report, by the Senate printer, and rescinding the for-mer order for that purpose, were taken up, and agreed to calling for information respecting the working of the mint at Philadelphia. A bill for the relief of the widow and heirs of Elijah Beebee, was taken up, and passed.

The resolution providing for the purchase of eight copies of Moulton and Mayo's edition of the Pension laws, for each new Senator, was taken up, and adopted.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the bill making a grant of land to the several States, for the relief of the indigent in-

Mr. Cass said he would vote against this bill, and, consequently, to sustain the veto. The precedent to be established by sustaining this bill, would be a precedent applying only to the bill, and all similar grants—it would extend no further. As he understood the reasoning of the veto message, he perfectly agreed with the President, but if that me sage should be construed as extending further, he would still vote against this bill, because it was un-

House of Representatives, June 13, 1854. Mr. Haven, in compliance with previous no-tice, introduced a resolution to close the de-bate on the Pacific Railroad bill at two o'clock to morrow; but, after some conversation, he withdrew it, and withdrew it, and

Mr. McDougall proposed an amendment to the bill, limiting the point of commencement of the Northern route to the same parellel as the Southern; which was order to be printed.
Mr. McDougall moved the postponement of the further consideration of the bill to the second Monday in December.
Mr. Phelps said such postponement was necessary, because the reports of surveys of the different routes could not sooner be obtained.
The motion was adopted and a motion to reconsider it was laid upon the table.

The resolutions proposed by Mr. Giddings, requiring the exclusion of A. O. P. Nicholson, and his assistants, from the privileges of the House, came up in order, upon the motion to lay them upon the table.

Mr. Giddings modified his resolution, by mitting the name of Mr. Nicholson, and simply designating the editor of the Union. table—yeas 101, nays 32.

Mr. Stanton, of Kentucky, from the select ommittee on the subject, by consent, reported bill to restore civil superintendents to the United States armories.

The House took up the House bill regulating the pay of Deputy Postmasters, as amended by the Senate, which was debated at some length by Messrs. Olds and Haven.

This debate involved the question of the dminished postage, of the late increase of compensation to the Postmasters, and of the contemplated increase of postage, to meet the increased expenses of the Department.

Mr. Skelton said that he would refrain from reviewing the history of the matter before the House. The question is simply what we shall charge for the transportation of letters, and what we shall pay to those who perform that duty. He argued that the Department should accommodate the public at the smallest possible expense, and that, to do so, the smallest possible pay should be awarded to the officers, and especially in view of the fact that there is never any difficulty in obtaining officers, even at the smallest comprensation. He was there at the smallest compensation. He was there-fore opposed to the bill.

Mr. Cobb called for the previous question.

which was ordered. The amendment propose by the Senate was agreed to, and the bill was

On motion of Mr. Houston, a resolution was adopted terminating the debate on the Civil and Diplomatic bill at twelve o'clock on Thursday next.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, (at half-past two o'clock.) and Mr. Walbridge delivered a speech on the subject of the Pacific Railroad.

THE ADVANTAGES OF A STRONG GOVERN-

MENT.-The New York Times says:

A writer in the Boston Courier expres hope that whenever another case of the seizure of a fugitive slave may occur in Boston, it "may be tried at the navy yard or at one of the forts, under the flag of the United States; for to carry on such an exciting trial," he adds, "in the centre of a people of the forts. for to carry on such an exciting trial," he adds, "in the centre of a populous city, for six or eight days, causes too great a strain on the machinery of Government." He goes on to say that at the navy yards, and in the forts, the Federal power has the means of checking disorder and of keeping out the idle and the evil disposed. This is another step towards bringing this law into conformity with public sentiment and the spirit of the age. Probably we shall have all these cases arising under it tried, by and by hy court martial. In fact military by and by, by court martial. In fact, military law—the law of the bayonet—seems in a fair way of being substituted for common and statute law on all matters in which the question of slavery is involved. The Federal Gov-ornment would do well, before putting these designs in execution, to increase the army and navy, and augment the resources of our forts. We doubt whether our State authorities are ready to surrender all their functions into the hands of the Federal power. They have profited somewhat by the theories of Southern statesmen in regard to State Rights. Mr Cal-

Conrad was inaugurated, this morning, Mayor of the new consolidated city of Philadelphia, Conrad was inaugurated, this morning, Mayor of the new consolidated city of Philadelphia, with more than the customary honors. The occasion was seized upon by his partisans as well as the friends of consolidation, as the occasion for a public rejoicing. Independence Square, as well as the streets leading to it, were pretty well crowded with men, women, and children. What with the waving of flags, the firing of cannon, and the occasional cheers of the multitude, the whole scene presented a most animated appearance.

"Wisdom shall bow down to it, and the great of the earth shall kneel before it."

NEVER could this be said with more truth, than it now applies to this remedy for affections of the throat and lungs. The exalted in learning and power acknowledge its supremacy, while both the little and the great can feel its benefits. The liberal minded among those skilled to cure, are free to own art. Those of exalted stations are not ashamed to testify to its virtues, but deem it a duty and a pleasure to thus hold out the lamp of their experience to their suffering fellow men. Witness the following :

Eastman's Infallible Rick Headache Remedy. Eastman's Infallible Sick Headuche Remedy.

THIS preparation, by E. P. EASTMAN, M. D., of Lynn, Mass., has been used in private practice for the last four years, with the greatest success. A radical cure has been effected in every instance where the directions have been strictly followed and persevered in. It is now given to the public with the full confidence that it will do all that is claimed for it, and prove itself, upon fair trial, an infallible Sick Headache Remedy.

It is safe and pleasant to the taste, it brings immediate relief, and all who test its curative virtues rejoice in the remova of pain, and marvel at its power in alleviating so general, and often so fatal, a scourge The following is from D. C. Baker, Esq., Mayor o. Lynn, and President of the Howard Banking Company, Boston:

I should, without hesitation, recommend them to those afflicted; and I beg to assure you, that I fully appreciate their value. Respectfully yours,

LYNN, August 6, 1853. Dr. E. P. Eastman.

My Drar Sir: I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my high appreciation of the efficiency and value of your Sick Headache Remedy. I have been afflicted, since my childhood, with very severe turns of sick headache, and have tried various remains that here have represented but found so conturns of sick headache, and have tried various remedies which have been prescribed, but found no considerable relief until I tried your remedy, which, I am happy to say, has almost entirely cured me. Several of my neighbors and friends have tried your medicine, and in every instance it has entirely relieved or greatly mollified the disease.

Faithfully yours,

JOHN B. ALLRY.

HO, HO! YOU ARE GETTING GRAY!

ARE YOU?

WELL, THAT IS A MISFORTUNE, and not a crime; but to remain gray when it is unfashionable, and so fine an opportunity offers to restore your "rich ambrosial locks," in all their pristine vigor and beauty, in three minutes, without injury to the hair or skin, by applying John A. Jones' Improved National Hair Dye, is but little short of crime. Therefore, don't delay. Applied and for sale by the original inventor of Liquid Hair Dye in this country.

DEAR SIE: For the past two years I have been severely afflicted with Liver Complaint, Dyspepsis, and Piles, saffering constantly the pains and inconveniences attendant upon such complaints, without energy, being scarcely able to attend to any business. I used a great deal of medicine, without any apparent change until I used your "Hoofland's German Bitters." They have entirely cured me. I am now entirely free from pain and ache of any kind, and feel like a new man in every respect, and unhesitatingly recommend your Bitters to all invalids.

To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort.

THE CONFLICT OF AGES!

BY DR. EDWARD BEECHER This Remarkable Work has reached its Fifth Edition, in the brief space of Four Months! A success unprecedented in Theological Pub-

A success unprecedented in Theological Publications!

An impression has already been produced by this masterly treatise, the most profound, wids reaching, and permanent.

It is perfectly manifest to all compotent observers, that we are upon the eve of a theological discussion, the most comprehensive, radical, and portentous, the world has ever seen. To this discussion this book leads the way, with a momentum irresistible. There is not a question in Theology which is not destined to come up for a new and thorough settlement in the light of this final development.

All those who have Theological doubts and difficulties should examine the solution this work affords. Those who have no doubts, but who wish to study the history of opinions in the past, and to keep pace with the developments of opinion in the future will grievously err if they neglect to make themselves familiar with this book. It contains the seeds of the thinkings and debatings of the next hundred years.

The reception of this work by the The logical press of the country, has been significant. Equally declining to accept his conclusion, they do it on opposite and contradictory grounds. One half of the Theological press endorses the major premise of the argument, and denies the minor,—The other half endorsement hand enies the minor, And as they are probably both right in their positive element, and wrong in their negative, the work has received a Virtual Endorsement of the most powerful kind.

As regards the ability of the work, and its claims on the attention of all, the following extracts may suffice:
